Averaging 24,000 visits per month, the court's website has increasingly become an important place for parties and the public to access information about cases, judges, and court news.

The new design features a sleek display and a fresh lay-out aimed at allowing users to access the most frequently visited applications with fewer clicks.

In addition to aesthetic and function changes, the court's new website will be hosted on an off-site server, which will allow for uninterrupted use in the unlikely event of a power outage at the courthouse.
